Tuesday 20 april

Orosei and Galtellì.

Discovering Orosei and Galtellì, two charming villages on Sardinia’s eastern coast, rich in history and traditions.

Orosei is known for its beautiful historic centre, with narrow streets, ancient churches and stone buildings, as well as its proximity to some of Sardinia’s most stunning beaches.

Galtellì, nestled at the foot of Monte Tuttavista, is a picturesque medieval village with cobbled streets, traditional houses and numerous historic churches.

Wednesday 21 april

Nuoro and Orgosolo.

Nuoro and Orgosolo, two iconic destinations in the heart of Barbagia. Nuoro, the birthplace of Nobel Prize-winning author Grazia Deledda, is one of Sardinia's most important cultural centres.

Orgosolo, on the other hand, is famous for its colourful murals, which transform the village streets into an open-air museum, telling stories of everyday life, local identity and social commitment.

Programme:

- 08:30 AM: Meeting and departure for Nuoro
- 01:00 PM: Visit to Orgosolo
